The Indian's 23rd Psalm

The great father above is a shepherd chief, I am His and with Him I want not. He throws out to me a rope, the name of the rope is love. He draws me and He draws me, and He draws me to where the grass is green and the water is not dangerous; and I eat and drink and lie down satisfied. Sometimes my heart is very weak and falls down, but He lifts it up again, and draws me into a good road. His name is wonderful. Sometimes it may be a long, long time, He will draw me into a place between mountains. It is dark there, but I will not pull back not. I will be afraid not, for it is there between those mountains that the Shepherd Chief will meet me. And the hunger I have felt in my heart all through this life will be satisfied. Sometime He makes the love rope into a whip, but afterwards He gives me a staff to lean on. He spreads a table before me with all kinds of food. He put his hands upon my head, all the "Tired" is gone. My cup He fills till it runs over. What I tell you is true – I lie not. These roads that are away ahead will stay with me through this life, and afterward I will go to live in the "Big Tepee", and sit down with the Shepherd Chief forever.

Things We Can Not Understand

There are many things in life that we can not understand

But we must trust in God's judgment and be guided by His hand

All who have God's blessing can rest safely in his care

For He promises safe passage on the wings of faith and prayer

We Love You Granny Your Grandchildren
