

Young Life

On February 3, 1975, Larry and Maxine Swindall were blessed with their first child, Quincy Roosevelt Swindall in Healdton, Oklahoma.

Quincy was always a very curious and busy child. He often completely destroy his toys, then immediately put them back together; it never failed that they always worked as though he'd never tore them apart.

Education

Quincy attended head start at Tatums School and later graduated from Fox Public School in 1993. He also went to Vo-tech in Ardmore during high school.

Sports

Quincy was an excellent athlete in football, basketball and track. On many occasions he had zero interest in sports, however his performances nevertheless got him to state track meets; winning gold and silver metals in the 400 meter dash.

Life Style

As a teenager Quincy joined the Pilgrim Baptist Church in Tatums; accepting Christ as his Lord and Savior in 1990.

The highlight of Quincy's life was devoting time to his family and friends. He enjoyed family outings, eating Momma Dear's Sunday dinner and lounging, laughing and talking with the family.

Briefly Quincy lived in Oklahoma City, then he committed a crime and paid his dues by going away for a short while. He learned his lessons well and was greatly remorseful. He then began a new chapter of his life in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma.

Through Quincy's journey he gained a certifications in masonry, horticulture and environmental safety. Most recently, he worked in Kiowa Technical Center and Pauls Valley Auction.

Quincy was only a call away from everyone that needed him. He loved to restore old cars, taking the boat on the lake and sitting under a tree with the fellas'. His passion was being involved with horses. He loved the challenge of breaking, racing, or just taking rides—he loved all aspects of riding.

Cherishing

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Rosie Joe Swindall; grandfathers, Joe Swindall and Clarence Plummer; great grandparents, George and Rosie Breath & Dan and Irene Watts; and uncles, Delano and Othel Swindall.

Quincy leaves to cherish his parents, Larry and Maxine Swindall of Tatums; brother, Levar Swindall of Oklahoma City; sister, Ebony Swindall of Pauls Valley; nephew, Levar Swindall II; nieces, Faith and Tamia Swindall of Oklahoma City; grandmother Rosie Watts; companion, Tiffany Garza; stepson, Jawaun Garza both of Pauls Valley; stepdaughter, Shawntica Davidson; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousin, other relatives and friends.

Quincy will be deeply missed.

and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

Isaiah 40: 28-31 New International Version of the Holy Bible.

Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary
